

Theorizing the Body in Health and Medicine

Edoardo Tresoldi, Pensieri I, 2014

26-27 November 2015
Maastricht University

Venue
Crowne Plaza Hotel
Ruiterij 1
6221 EW Maastricht

#BodyTheory2015
@mindthebodyeu
www.mindthebody.eu

Program

Thursday November 26

9.00-9.45: Registration + coffee and tea

9.45: Opening address: Jenny Slatman, Maastricht University

Chair: Lucie Dalibert, Maastricht University

10.00-11.00: Invited speaker: Lisa Blackman, Goldsmiths, University of London

Embodying Voice Hearing: Challenges and Tensions

Comments: Marjolein de Boer, Maastricht University

11.00-11.45: Ben Belek, Cambridge University

The Sensitive Body: Articulating Autistic Bodies, Embodying Autistic Articulations

Comments: Anna Harris, Maastricht University

11.45-12.30: Ian Tucker, University of East London

Medication Bodies: Affection, Distress and Social Media

Comments: Ellen Algera, University of Amsterdam

12.30-13.30 Lunch break

Chair: Gili Yaron, Maastricht University

13.30-14.30: Invited speaker: Kevin Aho, Florida Gulf Coast University

A Hermeneutics of the Body and Place in Health and Illness

Comments: Annemie Halsema, VU University Amsterdam

14.30-15.15: Ana Koncul, Telemark University College

Cultural Marginalization and Constructions of Differently Able Bodies

Comments: Karen Mogendorff, Delft University of Technology

15.00-15.30: Break

15.30-16.15: Jonathan Mitchell, University College Dublin

Atypical Morphology and the Normative Limits of Ability and Function

Comments: Beatrijs Haverkamp, Wageningen University

16.15-17.00: Else Vogel, University of Amsterdam

Practicing Embodiment: Handling Shifting Bodily Configurations through Obesity Surgery

Comments: Sara Rodrigues, York University, Toronto

19.00: Dinner

Friday November 27

Chair: Marjolein de Boer, Maastricht University

9.30-10.30 Invited speaker: Stefan van Geelen, University Medical Center Utrecht

Somatic Symptom Disorders and Embodiment in Psychosomatics and Psychiatry

Comments: Carla Peeters, Windesheim University of Applied Sciences

10.30-11.15: Karin Eli, University of Oxford & Anna Lavis, University of Birmingham

Body and Being in Anorexia: Experiential Intersection of Culture, Medicine and the Senses

Comments: Marisol Marini, University of São Paulo/Maastricht University

11.15-11.30: Break

11.30-12.00: Kaisu Koski, University of Tampere

Not to scale at all (video screening)

Comments: Aagje Swinnen, Maastricht University

12.00-13.00: Lunch break

Chair: Jenny Slatman, Maastricht University

13.00-14.00: Invited speaker: Kristin Zeiler, Linköping University

On the Making of Altruistic Bodily Exchanges in Medicine – Why Feminist Phenomenology and Social Constructivism Not Only Can but Preferably Should Be Combined

Comments: Lucie Dalibert, Maastricht University

14.00-14.15: Break

14.15-15.00: Nelly Oudshoorn, University of Twente

Technologies inside the Body. Rethinking Agency and Vulnerability of Users

Comments: Gili Yaron, Maastricht University

15.00-15.45: Jaana Parvianen, University of Tampere & Ilmari Kortelainen, University of Tampere

Self-knowledge through Self-tracking? A Phenomenological Discussion of Methodologies for Generating Knowledge from the Body in the Age of Health Technologies

Comments: Tamar Sharon, Maastricht University

15.45-16.00: Break

16.00-17.00: Wrap up/general discussion

This workshop is part of the VIDI project Bodily Integrity in Blemished Bodies (2011-2016), which is funded by the Netherlands Organization for Scientific Research, NWO

